January 30— SKUUF Strategic Plan

OK, we built this wonderful addition and we're growing our membership. Now what? This is your opportunity to shape the new strategic plan of the fellowship. The Governing Board and Committee Chairs have put together a draft plan and we need to hear from you. Everyone will be able to contribute through small group discussions.

In September I preached on our society's need for spaces and attitudes which are welcoming to people with physical disabilities. Some of us are disabled, and others of us are "temporarily able-bodied." I, a temporarily able-bodied person, took my infant son to our the annual meeting of the Northern New England Unitarian Universalist Association last spring. I noted many accessibility difficulties, including sets of stairs and multiple doors to navigate in hallways.

I shared my concerns with the Rev. Helen Zidowecki, who is in charge of arrangements for our district annual meeting. This year's annual meeting will take place at the same facility, the Red Jacket Inn in North Conway. Helen wrote:

"Thank you for your note regarding concerns about accessibility.

"As I mentioned to you, I share your concern and we have been working with Red Jacket to make changes in our meeting space to address some of the issues that you mention. For example, the children's program will be in a space that is ground level and directly accessible to the play area. We work continually with Red Jacket toward having workshop space that is accessible to everyone. In addition to mobility, there are concerns about visibility and hearing, and spacing issues.

"We also need the help of everyone so that we can do a better job of making the conference accessible and welcoming. We rely on people letting us know their accessibility concerns on the registration forms. This helps us as a check on our planning. Meeting the needs of a specific person helps us to make the space more accessible for all of us.

"When a problem is mentioned at the time of the conference, we will do our best to make necessary changes. I realize that there may be times when we cannot completely make a situation accessible, but please work with us as we work on this issue of inclusivity. Indeed, accessibility is a prime consideration in respecting diversity in our Unitarian Universalist congregations and gatherings.

"Thanks again for your note and for addressing accessibility with your congregation. I trust that we can continue working toward making all of our gatherings inclusive."

--Rev. Helen Zidowecki, NNED Program Chair

I was pleased with Helen's response and the progress our district is making in accessibility. I encourage you to attend the district annual meeting in the spring to meet other Unitarian Universalists in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

In fellowship,
Rev. Sarah

Religious Education Program

Each of our classes has created a "Covenant" on how they want to be with each other. I thought you might enjoy reading them.

The Chalice Children, our three and four years olds, have agreed to the following:

- One friend speaks at a time - Touch each other gently*
- Share toys and clay and crayons - Be nice to each other*
- Use nice words to each other - Take turns*
- Say nice things to each other*

Our Special Times class, the five to seven years olds, agreed to:

- Respect others - Wait your turn*
- No running - Be kind*
- Have a positive attitude*

Timeless Themes, our eight to eleven year olds, created the following statement:

How we want to be treated - listen to each other, be respectful and kind, share, and be helpful.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if our world leaders could sit down and create a covenant together?

Due to the Holidays, there are a lot of Thank Yous this month:

November 21 was a Multigenerational Service. Whitney Howarth, Michael Nicholas, Nancy Chaddock, Gigi and Paul Estes and Zander Browne took part in the service. Asa Batchelder lit the chalice and Clara and Kim Batchelder collected the Offering. Barbara Avery helped Wendy Rowbotham in the Nursery with our little ones.

November 28 was a Religious Ed. Committee Sunday. Margaret Salt, Diana Pamplin and Natalka Sywenkyi led a song and story time for the children.

Cecilia Falter helped out in the Nursery on December 12th.

Darcy Hoffman "built" thirty graham cracker structures and Natalka, Mark Casale, Mary Tierney and Morgan Maxner helped out with the Gingerbread Houses on December 19.

Kim Batchelder and Mary Joyce once again planned and produced the Family Christmas Eve Service.

And on January 2, another Religious Ed. Committee Sunday, Amy MacDonald and Margaret Salt (and helpers, I hope!) will be creating Coffee Hour snacks and decorations with the children.

Of course we also have twenty-two dedicated teachers working regularly with our kids. It takes a lot of people to keep a good R. E. Program going!

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

“From the Prez”...

Hello everyone,

Did you miss the column last month? The reason there wasn't a "From the Prez" in December was because I missed my deadline. Barbara Avery, our Newsletter editor extraordinaire, is a patient woman – but at some point the newsletter has to “go to the printers”. I'm sorry that I missed the deadline and I hope to make it up to you with a riveting report this month.

I hope that everyone enjoyed the Holidays. For me, I always enjoy the opportunity to get away for a week and spend some time with family. In this New Year the Governing Board is going to be spending more time developing our new Strategic Plan. We need your help! A strong and vibrant plan for an organization like SKUUF depends critically on input from as many people as possible. The Board and the Committee Chairs have been working on a new Strategic Plan for the last few months and now it will be ready for input from the wider community. Your first opportunity to participate in the process will be at an “adult ed” session on Sunday January 30th. We will try to have an interactive session in which you can participate in both small groups and a larger group to help shape the future of SKUUF.

On the financial front, I'd like to take this moment to thank everyone for responding to the letter from the Board to increase their pledge amounts for this year. We were able to successfully raise over $5,000 in additional pledges. This will be critical for us to meet our budget expectations this year. This is also a great opportunity to remind everyone to keep contributing to the tail end of their Capital Campaign pledges. This is the last year (out of three) for the Campaign and we still have to pay back loans to a few of our members that allowed us to put our wonderful addition on the building.

Hope you will enjoy a peaceful New Year!

Eric Hoffman

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship Committee for 2011 will be hosting a special Leadership Breakfast and Workshop on Saturday, January 22, from 9:00 to 11:30 a.m. Since stewardship visits will include an opportunity to record a short oral history, or story, we will be explaining and demonstrating how to do this interview. Marcia Blaine, history professor at Plymouth State University, will provide a model and guidelines for requesting and conducting a short, recorded interview. Rev. Sarah Stewart will discuss how to do a stewardship visit.

This exciting opportunity is open to Board members and Committee chairs as well as all SKUUF members. Each interviewer will do only two visits. These visits are a wonderful way to get to know other members better. If you are interested and would like to be included, please contact the SKUUF office and leave your name and number.

Kelli Thompson, a member of the Worship and Music Committee, will be doing the layout for this year's brochure.

Beverly Walker, Chair
Rev. Sarah Stewart

Hospitality Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are still needed for April through June. You may sign up for the rest of the year at this time. The list will be posted on the bulletin Board in the foyer, and printed in the newsletter. In addition, we'll remind you. We will contact each host on Wednesday of your scheduled week to remind you.

Fire Procedure

The Plymouth Fire Inspector was in last week and I had a chance to walk around with him. I have now posted "Fire Exit" charts in the classrooms. The most important thing to remember is that parents should exit through the upstairs doors and meet their children outside. Please don't try coming down the stairs or elevator. The children will be led out the door at the end of the new section and will wait in the parking lot for you.

Please let me know if you have any questions about this.

Cindy Spring, DRE

Thanks to all who contributed to the recent appeal for additional pledges during a financially tight operating year.
The appeal was successful, totaling more than $5,000, which should enable us to accomplish a balanced budget this year.

Learning at Home this Winter

Members of the Fellowship have been invited to participate in A Better World, A Meaningful Life (The next session runs January 3 - 28.) This is a month-long online course designed to help you in your quest to become a better human — a good human — by helping you examine your life and values and gain better skills and insights for doing the most good and least harm for yourself, other people, animals, and the earth. Many tell us this course is life-changing. It may also be world-changing. You can download more information about the course here: <http://humaneeducation.org/OnlineCoursePromoDocs/BWMLinfokit12011.pdf>

A Better World, A Meaningful Life was created by Zoe Weil, co-founder and president of the Institute for Humane Education and a graduate of Harvard Divinity School. We would like to make coffee hour easier for everyone by making it simple – it's just a snack to go with coffee, not a meal. Feel free to team up with someone else to do coffee. Help is available on how to run the new dishwasher.

The hospitality sheet also includes a sign up list for flowers. You do not have to do both on the same day, especially if you have a certain Sunday when you want to remember a special someone or a special occasion with flowers.

Thanks for your help in making SKUUF a welcoming and friendly place to come on Sunday.

Social Justice

January Community Outreach: Pemi-Baker Community Health (formerly Pemi-Baker Home Health & Hospice, Aquatic and Wellness Center)

- * Do you know anyone in the area who has suffered an injury or undergone a procedure and is fortunate enough to recover in the comfort of their own home?
- * Do you know anyone whose doctor recommended rehab in a therapy pool to help them strengthen and heal safely again?
- * Do you know anyone whose loved one was able to live in comfort at home, surrounded by family and friends during the last weeks or months of life?

Chances are they were able to do it through the support of Pemi-Baker Community Health's programs in Home Health, Hospice, Rehab Therapies, or Aquatic & Fitness.

Pemi-Baker Community Health is the only healthcare agency in the area that brings quality therapeutic and occupational services to you and your neighbors in the safety and comfort of your own home so that you may remain independent while recovering from injury or illness, or when other continuous support is required.

For patients with life-ending illness, the hospice team – comprised of caring and compassionate physicians, nurses, home aides, medical, social, and spiritual personnel, volunteers, motion therapists, and others – helps manage symptoms and improve the time remaining for patient and family alike, in their own home, in their own time.

Whether recovering from an illness or injury, certified staff develop and oversee individualized physical, occupational, speech and other therapies in our treatment rooms, gym, and the only temperature-controlled therapy pool in the area at our Boulder Point facility.

For those interested in a joint-friendly, comprehensive exercise program in the gym and/or pool, memberships are available to members of the public of all ages, with classes and hours that accommodate most busy schedules. Whatever your age or stage, we welcome you.

During 2010, we served well over 900 patients in our homecare, hospice, exercise and rehabilitation treatment programs. Many people do not know that PBCH also offers flu clinics, home safety assessments, functional capacity evals, diabetes and weight support groups, foot care and blood pressure screenings, health and wellness fairs, plus various fundraising and memorial activities to keep our community's loved ones in our thoughts and support us as we carry our mission of helping others forward.

Pemi-Baker Community Health actively seeks volunteers, and opportunities to care for our neighbors in the towns of Ashland, Campton, Ellsworth, Groton, Hebron, Holderness, Plymouth, Rumney, Thornton, Warren, Wentworth, and elsewhere by request. To learn more or find out how you can help, call 536.2322.

Community Closet Needs Our Help

Remember, the Community Closet can always use our help. There is a basket in the foyer for your non-breakable food contributions. You can drop off canned or boxed goods anytime.

Thank you.

Share-a-Book is NOW!

While you are planning stocking stuffers and making resolutions to be altruistic in the coming year, it's time to write the check for Share-a-Book. We will be buying more of those fabulous picture books in Spanish for the story time at the Women in Action center. We also plan to add to the reference and recreational reading section of the small library which is growing each year.

If you wish to date your check in January 2011 for tax purposes, please do that. We are happy to be flexible. It will be a while before the next delegation departs for Managua, so we can add books to the order in the new year. Unlike projects that have an overhead, all of the money you donate will go for reading materials for the children and their families.

Remember that we have simple cards for you to give to family and friends to let them know that you have donated books in their honor. Please let Margaret or Stew Weldon know how many cards you will need, and if envelopes are desired.

You can also ask for an English-Spanish book pair, so that a special child in your life can receive the same title we send to Managua. You buy the English Version at your favorite location, and we will purchase the Spanish twin. Don't forget to write Share-a-Book in the check legend, and write the check to SKUUF.

Thank you, from all the children at Mujeres en Accion!

For more information see Margaret Salt.

Friday, January 14: Games Night

Bring your games or just come and join the fun. Games start at 7:00 p.m. in our fellowship hall. Elizabeth Becker is your host; please call her at 744-3757 for more details. You'll love it so plan on coming second Friday of every month, same time and place, except for February. There will be no game night in February.

Thursday, January 20: Lakes Region Big Band

Come to the Common Man for a free live concert; there are great tunes for dancing or just do some toe tapping while you enjoy the swing band. The band starts at 7:00 p.m. and plays until 9:30 p.m. Our own George Maloof will lead some dance practice sessions starting at 6:00 p.m. Call George for more details.

January 26 – 30: Peter Pan

Check the Silver Center for the Arts at Plymouth State University for specific times and dates to enjoy a musical event featuring SKUUF families, friends and talented community folks that you enjoy. We invite you to consider Sunday, January 30 at 2:00 p.m. as a "SKUUF" family date; we plan to dine at the Italian Farmhouse following the performance. Call the arts center at 535-2787 for ticket details.

Special March Event Invitation from Mitch:

Join the Nashua Church at Cardigan Lodge, March 12. March 11-13 is the annual Nashua Church's Cardigan Weekend, and they invite SKUUFers to join the fun. While they have booked the AMC lodge both nights, we would probably like to join the Saturday activities: a hike to the summit (Hares), to Welton Falls (Turtles), ski at Ragged, back-country skiing, or Lodge-sit. Depending on the activity, we may want to lunch at Cardigan or take with. We probably would like to participate in the social hour and dinner; Phyllis and I did so last year and had a great time seeing old friends and meeting new ones. We'll need to guaranty meal counts in February; but consider the event and save the date now. Contact Mitch to enroll or for more information. I don't have the meal prices yet; but meals are affordable and good.

Fundraising*New Fundraising Ideas

Sometime in early January, the fund raising committee (Bob Lindstrom, Marilyn Ashley, Bev Walker, Darlene Nadeau, and Marcia Vandermast) will meet at George's home to discuss the possibility of a "high tea" event. We welcome anyone else who would like to join us... especially if they know anything about teas in general! Date and time to be decided but will be published. Contact George Maloof for more info or if you would like to participate. ALL IDEAS ARE APPRECIATED

George Maloof

Governing Board Meeting

The Governing Board will meet on Tuesday, January 11 at 5:00 p.m.

Committee Chairs Meeting

Committee Chairs will meet on Wednesday, January 19 at 6:00 p.m.

Adult Education - February

We are planning to have at least one session to discuss immigration using the recommended book The Death of Josseline: Immigration Stories from the Arizona-Mexico Borderlands by Margaret Regan (Beacon Press, 2010) which presents a series of intimate stories from immigrants, activists, human rights workers, and border patrol people. Through their stories, the book explores the ethical, moral, and spiritual challenges presented by the complex immigration issues on the border, evoking our human response, rather than a political or policy debate. Regan calls us to the religious act of bearing witness to brutality and despair along with extraordinary courage and commitment.

Reading is a solitary act, but the stories Regan tells are not easily held alone. Discussion groups provide a place for conversation and discernment as to how we will respond and act. We anticipate talking together will enhance each reader's encounter with the book and can give diverse people a shared experience on which to build meaningful conversation and action. See you in February.

SKUUM

The men's group, SKUUM, will meet on the first and third Sundays of January from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the upstairs conference room at SKUUF. Any interested male is invited to attend these lively and entertaining discussions which cover a wide range of topics.

The co-leaders are Bob Clay, George Maloof and Bill Trought. Contact any of them for further information.

Health Hint

There is a fairly new web site that can provide answers to both general and specific questions on both health prevention and disease/injury care. It is one that represents more than just the medical perspective with answers to questions coming from nurses, PTs, OTs, and a variety of other disciplines and institutions. If you can't find an answer to satisfy your specific question, you can submit it to an expert panel for a response. This is a web site being driven by consumer questions rather than the traditional approach of what "experts" think you should know.
